The Honorable John C. Marsh, Jr.
Counselor to the President
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Jack:

You will recall our discussion of the desirability of signed photographs by the President addressed to the Central Intelligence Agency. Our practice has been to display one photograph on the wall of a ground floor corridor and a second in the Director's Conference Room. Enclosed are quotations from statements already made by the President on this subject. We would greatly appreciate his following the example of his predecessors and inscribing the two placards which are enclosed and which will be mounted in the frames below the official photographs.

I have also enclosed the quotations of previous Presidents, whose photographs are prominently displayed for our employees.

Sincerely,

W. B. Colby
Director
